Stall reservations for the year are available to Valley members. Please list the number of stalls desired and the previous year's stall numbers (if known). A 24 hour cancellation notice is required if you do not intend to use your stall(s). Failure to do so will result in charges for reserved stalls and loss of future reservations. All fees for stalls are to be paid at each show. For cancellation call Barbara West at 535-4597.

Website : (check one) I do  or do not  give permission to have pictures of myself, my family, and/or my animals posted on the Valley Riders website. No one will be identified without express permission.

Required Hours :
 In order for the Club to host a show, we must depend on each member or family to do their share. (See 2010 Rules and Regulations) You must work your required hours to be eligible for year end awards. Anyone working over the required hours is eligible for incentive awards. You must work at least 3 hours at a time. Please check any dates that you might be able to work. This is not a commitment.

Open Shows at Johnson County Fairgrounds (We ask that a portion of your hours be worked at an Open Show.)
